

Build Your Move-Team Early with SLRS

Start planning your office move early! Starting the move process early will give you the best chance at a successful relocation. Strategic Logistics & Relocation Solutions will be there to help.

As part of your move team we will go to work for you to negotiate the best quality service at the most competitive price. We'll help plan, coordinate and implement a detailed move plan that will limit the amount of employee downtime. SLRS will be there every step of the way.

SLRS understands that unexpected challenges can and will arise. You will have piece of mind that with SLRS as part of your move team we'll be prepared overcome those challenges to ensure that your project stays on schedule.

With SLRS and an early start, you can be confident that a smooth transition will be part of what we deliver for you and your employees.

In addition to SLRS there are other move team members that will work closely with you to make your move a success. Some of them are:

- Your Real Estate Broker
- The Architect
- General Construction Contractor
- Furniture Dealer

Build your entire team as early as possible, and allow them to help you have the highest level of success.
